1. This action, as hereinafter is more fully set forth, is instituted under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA") and Massachusetts statutory and common law to obtain declaratory and injunctive relief and to recover damages for injury and damages caused by the defendants to the plaintiffs.

5. Venue is also proper in the District of Massachusetts pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), as all defendants reside in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, which is within the jurisdiction of the District of Massachusetts, and a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims herein occurred in the District of Massachusetts.

9. Plaintiff Erin Fairfield is the minor child of Andrew and Tracy Fairfield and lives and resides at 512 Maple Street, Franklin, Middlesex County, Massachusetts. This action is brought on her behalf by her mother and next friend Tracy Fairfield.

10. Defendant Massachusetts State Carpenters Health Benefits Fund is an organization established under law for purposes of providing benefits including health benefits to members of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, and it has a principal place of business located at 350 Fordham Road, Wilmington, Middlesex County, Massachusetts.

11. Defendant Harry R. Dow is the Executive Director of the Massachusetts State Carpenters Health Benefits Fund and has a principal place of business located at 350 Fordham Road, Wilmington, Middlesex County, Massachusetts.

12. Defendant James W. Buckley, Jr., is the Health Fund Administrator of the Massachusetts State Carpenters Health Benefits Fund and has a principal place of business located at 350 Fordham Road, Wilmington, Middlesex County, Massachusetts.

Factual Allegations

13. Plaintiff Andrew S. Fairfield was involved in a serious motor vehicle accident which caused him to lose over a year of work, to incur reasonable and necessary medical expenses and to suffer great pain of mind and body.

14. As a result of the aforementioned motor vehicle accident, Andrew S. Fairfield retained an attorney for the purpose of instituting a civil action for damages.

15. The insurance carrier for the other driver in the aforementioned civil action offered $20,000.00 (Twenty Thousand Dollars) to Andrew S. Fairfield to settle the case.

16. There was a dispute between Andrew S. Fairfield and that attorney which led to an immediate cessation of that attorney's representation of Andrew S. Fairfield with regard to the aforementioned civil action and any other matters.

17. Andrew S. Fairfield rejected the $20,000.00 (Twenty Thousand Dollar) offer.

18. As a result of the dispute with his attorney, Andrew S. Fairfield retained another attorney to represent him in connection with the aforementioned civil action.

19. Tracy Fairfield, both individually and on behalf of her children Megan Fairfield and Erin Fairfield, also retained this second attorney to join in the aforementioned civil action and bring claims for loss of consortium arising from the aforementioned motor vehicle accident.

20. The Defendant Massachusetts State Carpenters Health Benefit Fund provided healthcare benefits to Andrew S. Fairfield and paid reasonable and necessary medical expenses incurred in connection with his aforementioned motor vehicle accident.

21. The aforementioned insurance carrier then offered a settlement in the amount of $5,000.00 (Five Thousand Dollars) to Andrew S. Fairfield, and $5,000.00 (Five Thousand Dollars) to each of Andrew S. Fairfield's family members, namely Tracy Fairfield, Megan Fairfield and Erin Fairfield.

22. Defendant Massachusetts State Carpenters Health Benefit Fund through Defendant James W. Buckley, Jr. agreed to the latter settlement offer and to participation in such a settlement by agreeing to accept one-third of the $5,000.00 (Five Thousand Dollars) being offered to Andrew S. Fairfield in full and complete discharge of any lien or right to reimbursement the State Carpenters Health Benefit Fund had or may have had to medical bills it paid arising out of this accident.

23. This agreement was clear and unqualified.

24. The dissolution of the attorney-client relationship with the Plaintiffs was acrimonious.

25. The aforementioned dissolution of the attorney-client relationship led to a complaint by Plaintiffs Andrew S. Fairfield and Tracy Fairfield against said attorney.

26. As part of his defense to the Board of Bar Overseers proceeding, the accused attorney directly or indirectly, personally or through his agents, servants, employees or attorneys engaged in impermissible contact with Defendant James W. Buckley, Jr. and Defendant Massachusetts State Carpenters Health Benefit Fund, both of whom violated the privacy rights of the Plaintiffs and the rights of privilege and privacy of the prior attorney associated with the representation of Andrew S. Fairfield.

27. The aforementioned impermissible contact provided false, misleading and untrue information to Defendants which spurred Defendants to breach their contract of settlement and resolution of the lien claim and caused Plaintiffs each to incur substantial cost and expenses in protecting the amounts due to them under the settlement.

28. As a further consequence of the receipt of the aforementioned false, misleading and untrue information, Defendants have cut off Plaintiff Andrew S. Fairfield's family benefits and are attempting to extort and force the payment of monies in excess of the agreed-to one-third of the $5,000.00 (Five Thousand Dollar) settlement due to Andrew S. Fairfield from the settlement of his aforementioned civil action.
